Day 4 Excursion to Potsdam

Most of the day will be spent in the charming little town of Potsdam, just outside Berlin. You'll walk through the gardens of Sanssouci, where Frederick the Great's Palace stands and see Cecilienhof (now a Hotel), where Churchill, Stalin and Truman met to decide the fate of post-war Germany in 1945. Then you have time to explore the center of Potsdam on your own (insider tip: Dutch Quarter) before returning to Berlin. Overnight in Berlin

Cecilienhof, Potsdam

Day 5 Berlin – Prague

Drive into the Czech Republic to Prague. Lunch stop and short orientation tour in Dresden. Dinner and overnight in Prague

Dresden, Cathedral and Castle

Day 6 Prague

Sightseeing of Prague, the "Golden City of a Hundred Towers", considered by many to be the most beautiful baroque city in Europe. On the list are: the Hradshin Castle, residence of the Hapsburgs for centuries, the Wenzel-Square -- hub of the modern city and site of the protests of the Prague Spring of 1968. In the afternoon time remains for strolling and "nashing" or maybe a ride on the river Moldau to get a different view of the city. Overnight in Prague

Prague Castle and Charles Bridge

Day 7 Prague - Bratislava – Budapest

Head south through the hills of Bohemia and visit Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, before crossing the border into Hungary. Late afternoon arrival in Budapest, the capital of Hungary and city with southern flair. Dinner will be in a typical local restaurant with "Czardas" music. Special dinner and overnight in Budapest

in the Streets of Bratislava

Day 8 Budapest

A local guide takes you around this most charming city: see the Fisherman's Bastion in Buda, the elegant parks of Pest, see the Parliament and St. Margret's Island with its mineral baths and visit the magnificent Opera house. The afternoon is free for a cruise on the Danube or going to one of the cozy cafes or healthy mineral spas which Budapest is well known for.

Overnight in Budapest

Freedom Bridge over Danube (Budapest)

Day 9 Budapest – Vienna

Stop in Esztergom, to visit the huge cathedral, dedicated to St. Stephen, patron saint of Hungary, that towers over the spectacular Danube Bend. Győr, a quaint little town gives more insight into the Hungarian way of life before crossing the border into Austria. Enjoy today's dinner in a local "Heurigen" (new wine) Restaurant accompanied by typical Viennese Music.

Special dinner and overnight in Vienna

Day 10 Vienna

Today you will get to know Austria's great capital: the remarkable Ringstrasse, the Belvedere Palace, Charles Church, the Hofburg, residence of the Hapsburg emperors and empresses, and the modern UN city on the other side of the Danube. Then a back stage tour of the Opera house. The remainder of the day is free for independent discoveries: a delicious Sacher Cake, a stroll along the Danube or maybe in the Prater Park. Why not listen to some Mozart music and Strauss waltzes in the evening?

Overnight in Vienna

Day 12 Munich

On the city tour you see the sights that have made Munich a magnet for tourists from all corners of the world: Ludwigstrasse, an Italian avenue sponsored by Bavaria's King Ludwig I, the renowned Glockenspiel (carillon) situated on the fairy-tale like main square, the 1972 Olympic grounds next to the beacon-like BMW factory and the food market surrounded by picturesque church towers. An inside visit is then scheduled of Nymphenburg – a beautiful summer palace of the rulers of Bavaria, situated in a gorgeous landscape garden. Free afternoon for a museum visit, a relaxing stroll along the Isar river or through the pedestrian zone lined with shops and stores.

Day 13 Munich – Frankfurt

A morning stop is scheduled in Rothenburg, the medieval jewel on the Romantic Road. There you pay a visit to St. James cathedral with its well known Holy Blood Altar (a masterpiece of the early 16th C woodcarver Riemenschneider, the man who made "wood speak"). Time for independent discoveries and last minute souvenir shopping, before driving on to Frankfurt, Germany's Manhattan. A short orientation tour will show that Frankfurt is not only a modern financial center, but a city whose long and rich past is still visible.
